

SANTA FE FIGHTS EIGHT HOUR LAW

Railroad Company Will Carry Case to the Supreme Court

STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 6.—E. R. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, declared in a formal statement tonight that the Santa Fe does not intend to comply with the Adamson Eight-Hour Day Law, recently enacted by congress to avert a threatened railroad strike, until ordered to do so by the United States Supreme Court.

President Ripley declared that the so-called eight-hour law was nothing more than an advance of 20 to 25 per cent in wages to the men who receive the most money in the railway service.

Mr. Ripley's statement follows: "Congress, hastily acting under a threat of four leaders of labor organizations, enacted a so-called eight-hour law, which is nothing more than an advance of 20 to 25 per cent in wages of the best paid men in the railway service. It is only fair to the public and to our employees to say that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company does not intend to comply with the law until ordered to do so by the court of last resort."

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work

Calomel salivates! It's mercury.

Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than most calomel and without making you sick, you just back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

Ice Cream Supper

An ice cream supper will be given at Cavanaugh school house, near Mortons Gap, Saturday night. The affair will be under the auspices of this school and is for the purpose of procuring funds to purchase a school library. A number of Earlington people have planned to attend.

Belated Vindication.

The Persians of the time of Cyrus were Zoroastrians. The Persian religion was primitively monotheistic, and they allowed no idols or other material symbols of deity in their temples. There was less enmity on the part of the Jews against the Persians than against the other great nations with whom they came in contact, due probably to the monotheism which characterized the Persian religion. So Cyrus, whatever else may be said of him, was certainly not an idolater.—Christian Herald.

CAR SHORTAGE AFFECTS MINES

Increase of Shop Track Force Will Soon Relieve Shortage

Coal cars continue scarce on the Henderson division and local mines have been idle several days this week because there were no empty gons. Some of the mines were operated daily while others suspended operation. If gons were available the local mines could operate daily, but as there is a scarcity, the St. Bernard Mining Company has not been able to operate all of their mines on the same day.

THE "BIRTH OF A NATION" COMING TO HOPKINSVILLE

It will be welcome news to residents hereabout the D. W. Griffith's much-discussed historical spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," has been booked for the Tabernacle in Hopkinsville for two days immediately before its return engagement at the Vendome Theatre, Nashville, during the Tennessee State Fair week. The spectacle will be presented in Hopkinsville Friday and Saturday, Sept. 15th and 16th, with a symphony orchestra of 25 and the complete stage effects, exactly as it will be seen in Nashville.

"The Birth of a Nation" will not be shown within fifty miles of Hopkinsville and the Tabernacle engagement will afford people within that radius their only opportunity to see it. Although it is sometimes referred to as a moving picture, the fact is that the services of fifty people are employed in each presentation of the spectacle and a carload of special equipment is used. It can be presented only in theatres and auditoriums having large seating capacity. Mr. Griffith has persistently stated that his masterpiece will never be shown in moving picture theatres.

As most readers of the newspapers and magazines know, the story of "The Birth of a Nation" is taken from Thomas Dixon's romance of the Confederacy, "The Clansman." Eighteen thousand people and 3,000 horses are seen in its great battle scenes and among the historical events depicted are President Lincoln signing his first call for volunteers, Sherman's march through Georgia, the burning of Atlanta, Lee and Grant at Appomattox, the assassination of Lincoln in Ford's theatre, Washington, and the rise of the Ku Klux Klan. It cost $500,000 to produce the spectacle and each presentation lasts 3 hours.

The Friday and Saturday night performances in Hopkinsville will begin at 8 o'clock and the Saturday matinee will begin at 2:30. The prices will be: Nights $1 and $1.50; Matinee 75c and $1.00, children under 14, will be admitted to any seat at the matinee for 50c. All except children matinee tickets will be on sale at Anderson-Fowler Drug Co's Store, Hopkinsville, after Tuesday morning, Sept. 12, and there will be no extra charge for tickets purchased in advance. Remittance payable to H. L. McPherson must accompany mail orders.

COAL GONS ARE SCARCE ON I. C.

Mines on the Louisville Division of the Illinois Central Railroad have not been able to operate regularly owing to a shortage of coal gons. The mines near Central City are the ones most affected. The car shortage is reported to be as bad as it is on this division.

MAYOR RASH REPLIES

To Article in The Bee in Regards to Good Roads

The following letter is self-explanatory and is published that the people and property owners of Earlington may see how the matter stands. Communications from Earlington property owners answering Mr. Rash's query as to "what is the best plan" will be gladly received and published.

Earlington, Ky., 9/7/16
Mr. J. E. Fawcett, Mgr.,
The Bee
City:—

Dear Sir:—
I note in the Bee of Sept. 5th in an article headed "What about the Dixie Bee Line" that you use this language "the State and County have done their part, how about Earlington doing her part."

Did you know that the State's part is due the Towns the same as it is due the County on inter County seat roads?

The law is that the Towns are entitled to State aid, but it must be obtained by application to, and through the Fiscal Court.

Such application has been made in proper form to our Fiscal Court, also to the Commissioner of Public Roads, as the law requires, but no action has been taken. (We understand the Court has appropriated all the funds they have for this purpose.)

Besides, it appears that unless Bonds are issued we could not get State Aid as we have to put up Dollar for Dollar of the State money, and it is known by all of our Citizens who are familiar with our Financial conditions that except by a Bond issue we could not build any number of squares.

Some have urged a Bond issue while others have wanted to build on the plan of two-thirds against the property owners, and one-third to be paid by the City.

The contractors will not bid on work, except the City pays all of the Contract price, and except where petitioned by Property owners we can not build on this plan.

We all want good roads.
What is the best plan?
Yours Truly,
W. E. Rash
Mayor.

Vain Repinings.

"By right of conquest," he declared, the maid belonged to him; but as along life's path they faced—his slight growing dim, her temper waxed sharp and shrewd, her tongue became uproarious; and he wished, as his past he viewed, that he hadn't been victorious.

SCHOOL OPENS NEXT MONDAY

Prof. Dudley Urges Parents and Guardians to Start Children Promptly.

Prof. C. E. Dudley, in communication with The Bee man, desires all parents and guardians to see that the children under their control begin school promptly and attend regularly. We expect to have a splendid school this year and the patrons of the school are urged to work in conjunction with the principal and teachers to this end.

In order to have a successful school absence and tardiness must be eliminated as far as possible and no child should be allowed to remain out of school unless absolutely necessary. Earlington has one of the best schools in this end of the state and a number of out of town pupils will attend this session. Earlington has a right to be proud of the John B. Atkinson Memorial School and every citizen of the town will doubtless do all in their power to assist in advancing the cause of education in the community.

The Drink Traffic Unnatural

The liquor press vociferously asserts that as long as men want drink they will get it.

What they mean is that men will get drink as long as the liquor interests can induce them to do so. If the American public were supplied only with the liquor it would go out of its way to get, and not subjected to the suggestion and compulsion of advertising, free lunches, pool tables and innumerable social, political and economic schemes, there would be very little liquor consumed.

No. The vicious liquor trade is projected upon American society by the men who make money out of it.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Picnic at Loch Mary.

A chicken fry was given at Loch Mary Wednesday evening by the young folks of the town in honor of Miss Frieda H. Har, of Paris, Ky. Many interesting games were played and a good time enjoyed by all.

THE UNPOPULAR EIGHT-HOUR DAY

The eight-hour day which railroad men want is a "basic eight-hour day" with "pro rate over time" in some circumstances and "punitive" or "time and a half" overtime in other circumstances.

That eight hours for work and eight for sleep and eight for play is beneficial to the physical man is agreed generally, but very few men, comparatively speaking, want to work no more than eight hours a day. Any number of men will clamor for or legislate for an eight-hour day for themselves or for some other class with whom they have little in common. But few earnest workers want to stop short when eight hours have elapsed and go forth to play eight hours before sleeping that length of time.

Play, as a rule, is not free of cost. Unless a man is pretty well off he is saving in two ways—in his own calculations—when he is at work. He is saving what he would spend if he were not at work, and he is saving what he would not earn if he were playing. So the average industrious man who has a job at which he works only eight hours finds something to do "on the outside" and turns an honest dollar in that way.

The eight-hour day is a popular ideal, but an unwanted reality. The normal human being knows well enough that play often is harder upon the constitution than work. He knows that when he plays he often sits up too late playing—not only poker but also playing at daunting with idle young girls who may sleep when he is working, or playing with his favorite authors, or in other ways stealing from his sleep time a little more play than he ought to have, but he works rarely exhausts him. That is, it does not if he makes a liberal allowance of time for sleep. And as he gains experience of life, and learns the many excellent uses to which every extra dollar can be put; as he grows middle-aged and sees how well those fare who have worked overtime rather than played overtime, he loses the enthusiasm for short hours which has caused him, perchance, to express himself vigorously in behalf of the right of mankind not to work more than one-third of the time.

The world is full of persons who look about—and many of them succeed in their search—for something extra that will return a profit. Rich men who are well burdened with business take on other responsibilities. Poor men whose salaries are insufficient to meet their own requirements or the requirements of their growing families get "piece work" of some kind to help along. A great nerve specialist wrote popular novels. He did it for recreation, he said, but it paid him handsomely. He worked fourteen hours a day, maybe, as a nerve specialist, and didn't wear out his own nerves, and when he had a vacation he sat down and wrote novels, and was not killed by a sedentary life. He didn't lead a sedentary life. He walked about, perhaps, between chapters, but he did not devote a third of the time to play; not even a third of his vacation.

wealth—who has worked as little as eight hours a day, or who would have wanted to do so when he was in his prime. If you discover him you will discover an exception to the rule.

Hurrah, of course, and again hurrah! for human rights and labor hours which do not make life slavery. But if the men who get ahead in this world were chained to a system of eight-hour play they would regard their slavery as being damnable.

The world never will be put on an eight-hour day basis. Of course nearly everyone who works for another would like to have more time in which to pursue his own designs. But in the average case he would find profitable employment for some part of his allotment of leisure.—Courier-Journal.

Attend School Opening

An earnest invitation is given to all patrons of the John B. Atkinson Memorial School to be on hand for the annual opening Monday, Sept. 11. An interesting opening program will be given. If you are a patron or a well wisher your presence will be very much appreciated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Congress

Hon. William T. Fowler

We are authorized to announce
Hon. William T. Fowler, of Christian County, as Republican candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District, subject to the action of the voters at the general election to be held Tuesday,
November 7, 1916.

A WEEDING OUT PROCESS USUAL

What Type of Man is Usually Picked for the "Lay Offs?"

When business is poor, the market
crowded or the season dull, in no matter what industry, the "weeding out process" is common, and the great army of employed never know how soon the "axe" will fall.

Have you ever stopped to consider what type of man or woman is first picked for the "lay off." Is it the strong, robust fellow, with plenty of energy and vigor in his make up or is it the nervous, weak, run-down individual, who considers work strudgery and continually complains of feeling sick and tired. Of course, you will agree that it is the latter class that succumbs to the "weeding out process."

The employer realizes that the physically fit man or woman is the most efficient worker. As efficiency is the watchword of modern industry, there is no place in the present day business world for the nervous
run-down man or woman.

All depends on the condition of the nervous system as the nerves govern absolutely every process that goes on within our bodies. Nearly all functional weaknesses and disorders can be directly traced to weak nerves and depleted vitality.

Every great man of history—
every successful man of the day—
is possessed of more than an average amount of energy. Some have been especially endowed with this wonderful quality, as were Lincoln, Napoleon, Morgan, Rockefeller and others; and some developed it as did Gladstone and Roosevelt.

Were it possible to chronicle all the failures, not due to lack of brains, but lack of physical vitality, there would be a list as long as to startle the world.

Tanlac, the new reconstructive tonic, stimulates the nerves. It does even more—it builds up the tissues invigorates the system, vitalizes the blood, assimilates the food, creates appetite, drives away headaches,
sleeplessness, nausea, sour stomach,
dizziness and indigestion. Tanlac has proven invaluable for ailments
that originate from stomach, kidney and liver disorders, and extrinsic affections of the mucous membranes.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: Earlington, Geo. King & Sons; Madisonville,
Gardiner & Bowmer; Mortons Gap,
B. T. Robinson; Nortonville, City
Drug Store; White Plains, Dr. Bailey; Mannington, Walter McIntosh;
St. Charles, George King & Sons;
Carbondale, G. A. Woodruff; Dawson Springs, Coleman & Wallace; Crofton, Brasher & Croft; R. F. D.
Crofton, Rance & McIntosh; Princeton, Wylie & Walker.

Human Lobsters.

Many women are like the species of lobster which, if left upon the rocks
by the receding tide, waits for the returning tide to float it from its temporary prison. There on the rocks it would remain to die, although a slight effort would enable it to reach the waves, tossing only a few feet below.
There are many human lobsters, mere "hangers on" of society, who are entangling themselves with the idea that because they are women they are to be helped without putting forth any effort themselves.

WOMEN SHOULD BE FOR CHARLES E. HUGHES, SAYS ROOSEVELT.

Mr. Hughes has unequivocally taken the right position, and as regards all other positions he,
and not his opponent, is entitled to the support of both men and women, and therefore the women in the enfranchised states
who do not in this election support him forfeit the right to say they have done their utmost for their sisters in the non-enfranch-ised states.—From a Letter of Theodore Roosevelt to Miss Alice Carpenter.

MR. HUGHES ANSWERS.

Those Who Clamored For His Views
Are Hearing Them.

Those friends of Democracy who clamored so loudly for Mr. Hughes' opinions upon current issues while he still held the high office of justice of the supreme court are now fully answered by the private citizen, who surrendered his judicial position to accede to the wishes of a majority of the people as expressed through their instructions to their delegates to the Republican national convention.

Mr. Hughes has not disappointed those who have reposed confidence in his character and judgment. In his speech of acceptance he has clearly set forth the vital issues upon which the Republican party proposes to conduct the campaign this fall. On the platform he is telling the nation wherein the present administration has been at fault and what is necessary to be done to restore the United States to the place of respect and honor to which it is entitled in the eyes of the world.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HUGHES' ADDRESS IN CHICAGO.

"As I was 100 per cent judge I became 100 per cent candidate."
"The most serious charge against the present administration is putting incompetent men into important positions."
"I propose that when a man goes to represent the American people he shall be looked upon with respect and esteem."
"Nobody has the right to pay political debts with the good name and the honor of the United States."
"I propose to have no more
'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."

Those Canadian sentries who searched the car of Mr. Hughes for explosives missed the bombs he has ready to drop into the Democratic camp.—
Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The New York Sun says that Daniels is the issue, but our opinion is that the Democrats will, in company with several other so called issues, duck this one. Daniels is too difficult a proposition to defend.

Instead of getting those Danish islands at a bargain, "marked down from $25,000,000 to $5,000,000," we're going to pay a twenty million bonus
on a $5,000,000 value.

"WORDS OR DEEDS?"

"If anything in this campaign
is real it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds; whether we want that which is written and spoken, or whether we want American action in the interests of the American people, worthy of the American name, maintaining the American honor and buttressing
the prosperity of the United States."—From Mr. Hughes'
Speech at Chicago.

Essentials of a Home.

It is not money as much as energy,
thought and love that converts a place
into a home, and there are few things more contagious than happiness. Children who have a happy home, surrounded with flowers, fruits, simple comforts and innocent pleasures, no matter how inexpensive the house and its furnishings, are like magnets in the community, and will draw their companions to that home to share with them its joys. — Progressive Farmer.

Editorial Comments

The Democrats continue to ignore
Mr. Hughes' speeches to the extent that all they do is to sputter and gasp.

Let it be conceded there are really strong grounds for the opinion that President Wilson may carry Texas next November. If these indications are taken at their full worth some enthusiasts will soon be going out to bet
that the tide will sweep on until Mississippi and Alabama are also enrolled in the Democratic column.

Many big Democrats willing and ready to speak for Wilson are careful that their money shall not say anything on his side.

President Wilson says he is utterly indifferent as to his re-election. Perhaps that explains a good many things nobody has heretofore been able to understand.

"Help me, Cassius, or I sink!" For
"Cassius" read "congress."

The notion seems to be that the Democratic national chairman is clinging from states' rights declarations this more than he will get, but not any more than he will need.

As further evidence that he is warm hearted and intensely human, Mr.
Hughes likes apple pie.

No man is going to be elected—or re-elected—to high office by votes gained from states' rights declarations this late in the game. The states' rights question was settled some fifty years ago to the evident satisfaction of a considerable majority.—Kansas City Star.

"Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security. It is a necessary safeguard of peace." Candidate Hughes has left nothing to be said on this subject. He has snuffed out counter argument at the very onset.

"Are we Americans a nation of hungers?" asks the New York Sun.
It would be very hard to answer this in the affirmative—and, anyway, we elect a Democratic president only every once in a while.

Charles E. Hughes cannot get so far away from Washington that the men in charge of the chariot of government there do not feel the jolting of his criticisms. In fact, the Democratic leaders at the capital city show symptoms of seasickness from the way in which the ex-justice of the supreme court has shaken them up. Mr. Hughes is pursuing the only proper method,
which is first to take the deadwood out of the way so that the path to righteous and prophetic government
may be made clear.

THE NEUTRALITY OF PONTIUS PILATE

But as soon as the need for deeds arose Mr. Wilson forgot all about "the principle he held dear." He promptly announced that we should be "neutral in fact as well as in name, in thought as well as in action," between the small, weak, unof-fending nation and the large,
strong nation which was robbing it of its sovereignty and lucre. Such neutrality has been compared to the neutrality of Pontius Pilate. This is unjust to Pontius Pilate, who at least gently urged moderation
on the wrongdoer.—From the speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E.
Hughes.

The president gets up early during the hot spell, and there are some who think he may have to continue the practice until November if that man Hughes continues to be so undigni-fied.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

WILSON'S IGNOBLE, UNSUC- CESSFUL LITTLE WARS.

President Wilson took Vera Cruz in 1914, as we were officially informed at the time, to get a salute for the flag and to prevent the shipment of arms into Mexico. He did not get his salute. He did not prevent the shipment of arms. But several hundred men were killed or wounded, and then he brought the army home without achieving either object. President Wilson sent an army into Mexico in 1916, as we were informed at the time, to get Villa "dead or alive." They did not get him dead. They did not get him alive. Again several hundred men were killed and wounded.
Again President Wilson is bringing the army home without achieving his object. Of course it is a mere play upon words to say that these were not "wars." They were wars and nothing else—ignoble, pointless, unsuccessful "little wars, but wars. They cost millions of dollars and hundreds of lives, and succeeded to no purpose. They accomplished nothing, but they were wars.—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

EMPTY PHRASES INSTEAD OF CONCRETE ACTION.

Not once has President Wilson squarely placed before the American people the question which Abraham Lincoln put before the American people in 1860. What is our duty? Not once has he appealed to moral idealism, to the stern enthusiasm of strong men for the right. On the contrary, he has employed every eloquutionary device to lull to sleep our sense of duty, to make us content with words instead of deeds, to make our moral idealism and enthusiasm evaporate in empty phrases instead of being reduced to concrete action.—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Telling Tariff Points

Let these telling points on tariff and protection in the speech by Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate for President, delivered in the Salt Lake Tabernacle, be fixed permanently in your mind and memory during the remainder of the campaign:

We are desirous of having strong and sure the foundations of our national greatness in this pursuit of competition among the nations which is sure to follow the cessation of the present struggle.

I propose that the Republican party as the national party, according to the constitution of the United States,
within the national sphere, shall proceed wherever it is practicable to build up and foster and encourage American enterprise and open the doors wide for honest American achievement.

Then came the Underwood tariff bill itself. What was the result? Enterprise halted and there was a contraction of trade throughout the land, and America, instead of going ahead, stopped. That is what happened. Three hundred thousand were unemployed in the city of New York. There was not a city in this land where the jobless man anxious and able to work did not walk the street. They were fed by our charitable organizations, which were taxed to the utmost limit to provide for those for whom American enterprise could no longer make provision. It was a sad spectacle. Americans have not forgotten it. It is not forgotten here or anywhere. It cannot be forgotten.
It is too recent.

If you are going to have the basis
for prosperity in this country, if you are going to protect the American wage scale, if you are going to have American enterprise able to meet the competition which will follow the ending of this war, you must have an honestly devised, wisely framed tariff law to protect American industry.

No; the Democratic party will not be saved by the European war. If you would know what our condition will be when that war ends think of what our condition was before that war began if you think these nations are so impoverished that they cannot again turn to work. Those millions of men now fighting are better able to work
than ever before in their lives. . . .
Their factories are there; their plants
are there; they know themselves better than ever before. They are better disciplined, more alert, keener, stronger, better physically, than ever before in the main, and they are ready to turn great national energies into the pursuits of peace to pay their war bills, to produce up to the limit, to send their goods throughout the world.

I propose that we shall study this out,
applying a principle that we believe in,
and secure intelligently and honestly adequate protection to American industries in every part of this land.

WHY HUGHES IS NEEDED IN THIS TREMENDOUS CRISIS.

Against Mr. Wilson's cumbuln-tion of grace in eloution with futility in action, against his record of words unbacked by deeds
or betrayed by deeds, we set Mr.
Hughes' rugged and uncompromising straight forwardness of character and action in every office he has held. We put the man who thinks and speaks directly and whose words have always been made good against the man whose adroit and facile eloution is used to conceal his plans or his want of plans. The next four years may well be years of tremendous national strain. Which of the two men do you, the American people, wish at the helm during these four years—the man who has been actually tried and found wanting or the man whose whole career in public office is a guarantee of his power and good faith? But one answer is possible, and it must be given by the American people through United States.—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHING

Now ready for their inspection. The styles, the fabrics, and the values are in every way typical of the High Art Store.

There are many models which will be worn by the best dressed fellows the country over. And there is the added satisfaction of selecting from one of the most complete stocks in the Middle West.

High Art prices are as usual—$10 to $30—the best possible values at each price.

We are now open for business. Mail orders promptly filled. Cash paid.

News of the Town

"Good morning! Have you seen The Courier?"
Evansville's best paper."

Wm. Walton, who had his foot mangled by a car at No. 411 triple, has resumed his work.

G. L. Blackwell will leave in a few days for St. Louis to attend the producers convention, which is given for the benefit of its members. Both comedies and dramas will be shown on the screen.

As the L. & N. railroad company will increase its shop track force at this place the car shortage will be relieved to a great extent.

Sloane Givens, of Madisonville, was in the city Wednesday night visiting friends.

Mrs. Clarence Fox remains about the same.

H. E. Shaw, of Evansville, manager of the Central Film Service Co., was in the city Thursday on business.

Robt. Utley has moved his family from the Fegan farm, north of the Hecla mine, to Akluson avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Rickard, of Smithgrove, are visiting their son-in-law Mr. Brown.

Mrs. J. L. Burton is in Hopkinsville visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Larmouth.

Miss Naomi Howell, of the Suthards School House neighborhood, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Burton.

The L. & N. pay car was here Friday paying the local employees of the railroads.

Roscoe, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stearns, who fell and broke his collar bone, is doing very nicely.

Lorenza Hayes, John G. Morton and "Chucky" Thompson were in the city Wednesday.

Kenneth Nisbet left Monday night for Lexington where he is in Transylvania University.

Col. W. A. Toombs has returned from his semi-monthly inspection of mine scales at St. Charles.

Alex C. Bailey, editor of the Madisonville Messenger, was in the city Wednesday on business.

Mrs. M. K. Gordon, of Madisonville, motored here Wednesday.

John H. Barbee, of Madisonville, was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Susan Marie Crutchfield will leave next week for Hopkinsville to enter Bethel College.

Dr. Thompson and family, of Madisonville, spent Sunday afternoon with friends here.

Word received from Frank Hlanul, who accompanied Mrs. Ghanul to Chicago last week, where she expected to undergo an operation, states that she has been in a serious condition, but is now thought to be slightly improved.

After a vacation of six weeks, the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church met again on Tuesday evening with an attendance of twenty-three.

Dr. C. B. Johnson has moved to the Canler property on Farren avenue, which was his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ermit Wyatt, of Victoria, are the proud parents of a new girl. The little baby arrived on Tuesday.

Ed Suthard and family and Claude Davis, of Depoy, were in the city last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wyatt.

Prof. Leo Salmon returned last week from Chicago University where he has been taking a course this summer. He will leave in a few days to again take up his duties at the Millersburg Military Institute.

Miss Eleanor and John Dubulson are visiting their cousins, Miss Josephine and Charles McManus, of Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. King and Mrs. G. C. King were in Madisonville Thursday night.

Hunt vice to its lair and you will find the saloon.

Forget Your Aches
Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleaner and more effective than many ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments resulting from strenuous exertion, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for all emergencies. At your druggist, 25c.

There is but one way of repressing prohibition. Give it the earth.

Are You Looking Old
Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at forty. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are truly an intended remedy for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

All the saloon asks is to be let alone. What more does the murder or ask?

Lax-Fos, A Mild, Effective Laxative & Liver Tonic
Does Not Grip or Disturb the Stomach. In addition to other properties, Lax-Fos contains Cascara in acceptable form, a stimulating Laxative and Tonic. Lax-Fos acts effectively and does not grip nor disturb stomach. At the same time, it aids digestion, arouses the liver and secretions and restores the healthy functions. 50c.

Explaining the Ceremony.
It is from the Boston Traveler, and is supposed to have been spoken by a clergyman's small son, whose older brother was to be confirmed at church. "It's like this," quoth the youngster, "the bishop is going to put his mits on brother's bean."

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.

President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, not once, but repeatedly, made attacks on American towas and killed American citizens and mutilated them in September, 1915. Yet on Oct. 10, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his same secretary of state, formally announced to Carranza's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity "of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive." President Wilson thus recognized the government which, his own secretary of state declares, had been less than a month previously engaged in repeated assaults upon American soil, the government at whose head was General Carranza, who, less than two months previously, on Aug. 2, 1915, had contemptuously refused to pay any heed to any representations of President Wilson on behalf of mediation, saying that "under no consideration would I permit interference in the internal affairs of Mexico." President Wilson did not merely kiss the hand that slapped him in the face. He kissed that hand when it was red with the blood of American men, women and children who had been murdered and mutilated with, as President Wilson, through his secretary of state, says, "ruthless brutality."—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

(N. Y.) SUN STROKES.

Roger Sullivan steps aside.—News-papper headline.
Students of Democratic politics know what a thin line divides stepping aside and sidestepping.

The Democrats seem to realize, to their dismay, that if they can't persuade Mr. Hughes to change from plaintiff to defendant the case is lost.

The president "will not take the stamp," but "will accept invitations to speak at different places." Chairman Vauco McCormick is as Machiavellian as a muckworm.

It is not what Wilson has kept us out of, but what he's got us into that counts at present.

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING.

In March last Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing. He was at the head of Mexican soldiers, whose arms and munitions had been supplied to them in consequence of Mr. Wilson's reversing Mr. Taft's policy and lifting the embargo against arms and munitions into Mexico. They attacked Columbus, New Mexico, and killed a number of civilians and a number of United States troops. On the next day the president issued an announcement that adequate forces would be sent in pursuit of Villa "with the single object of capturing him." On April 8th, the announcement was made from the White House that the troops would remain in Mexico until Villa was captured. It was furthermore announced in the press dispatches from Washington that he was to be taken "dead or alive." Fine words! Only—they meant nothing. He is not dead. He has not been taken alive.—From Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Mr. Wilson during the past few days has become such a life long opponent of the pork barrel that he is almost sorry now he didn't veto some of those bills.

Secretary McAdoo warns Treasury employees against too much political activity, and if they don't disobey the order they are likely to be bounced.

A HEARTLESS ADMINISTRATION

This administration has displayed no more feeling of responsibility for the American women who have been raped and for the American men, women and children who have been killed in Mexico than a farmer shows for the rats killed by his dogs when the hay is taken from a barn. And now the American people are asked to sanction this policy in the name of peace, righteousness and humanity!—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

"Kleptomania."

Kleptomania, or the impulse to steal, is a controverted obsession, especially when a poor person yields to the desire, for, of course, there would be an end to all falling for such delinquencies were the admission made too generally of mental irresponsibility when things are absent-mindedly appropriated. But when the appropriation is well off and the article "swiped" is absurd the veritability of kleptomania may be admitted medico-legally, so that it becomes a luxury denied to poverty, just as the difference between inebriety and drunkenness is a matter of cash.—Exchange.

Valuable Material Long Ignored.
Many years ago soap boilers used to have great difficulty in getting rid of a thick, evil-smelling liquid which was the chief by-product of their industry. They ran it into streams and sewers. Presently someone began collecting it and refining it. The result was glycerin as it is known today.

Varieties of the Peanut.

Roughly speaking, three varieties of peanut are grown in this country—red, white and Spanish. The white, the most important variety, has a nut with two kernels with pink skins; its vine spreads along the ground, in this respect unlike that of the red variety, which grows more upright and in a bunch. The pod of the red nut holds three and sometimes four kernels, and has a deep red skin. The Spanish is a much smaller nut, with a lighter skin and milder flavor than either of the others possesses. The entire crop is shelled and used especially in the confection known as nougat.

REPUBLICAN THRIFT IS SQUANDERED BY WILSON

Built Panama Canal Out of Current Revenues, Patriotically Hoarding Bonds in Treasury Which Democrats Filch to Hide a Deficit.

CARNIVAL OF DEBAUCHERY IN PUBLIC EXPENDITURE

Senator Penrose Believes the Looted Condition of the Treasury Will Necessitate the Withholding of Contracts For Battleships and Delay the Whole Scheme of Preparedness—Nation's Money Frittered Away to Finance Hare Brained and Ill Advised Projects.

William H. Willcox, chairman of the Republican National committee, has received from Senator Penrose a brief but positive summing up of the extravagance of the Wilson administration during the session of congress just about to close. The senator says:

"When the country realizes what this congress has done in the way of appropriations it will be dumfounded. Already it has been shown that over a billion, seven or eight hundred million dollars have been appropriated—more money than was ever appropriated in any one year in the history of the American government. The total will reach nearly $2,000,000,000 before the end of this carnival of debauchery in public expenditure is reached, because no account has been taken of the $25,000,000 for the Danish Islands, the $30,000,000 which the government will probably have to refund as a result of the 5 per cent rebate allowed on importations brought across the seas in American bottoms, and other matters which are likely to come up.

"It is only too evident that this bill which is expected to bring in some $200,000,000 will absolutely fail to meet even the requirements for the ill advised and certainly not urgent projects authorized by the present congress.

"It is now claimed that these projects are to be financed by the issuance of Panama canal bonds. The American people will regard such a proceeding as a very queer one because the issuing of bonds by the Cleveland administration largely helped to bring about the downfall of the Democratic party in 1896. A bond issue has ever since been viewed with abhorrence by the Democracy; now, we find the party leaders compelled by reason of their extravagance and inefficiency, to resort to it.

"To defray the expenses of a nitrate plant and of a shipping board and many other needless projects by the issuing of Panama bonds will be in the last analysis equivalent to paying for them by bond issues. These bonds are lying in the treasury unused as the result of the thrift and economy and wise administration of the Republican party.

"Only about $120,000,000 of bonds were put out in the construction of the Panama canal. The balance of the cost of that stupendous undertaking was paid out of current revenues; and now, to advance the novel doctrine that these bonds which represent the thrift of preceding years shall be issued for these questionable projects is, to my mind, preposterous. In fact, it was expressly provided in the Spooner act that Panama canal bonds should not be issued for any other purpose than that of the construction of the canal, and the ingenious theory that they can be issued now to repay the treasury and that then the money can be squandered by the party in power to finance doubtful projects and to make good a deficit will not alter the fact that such a deficit exists.

"No amount of renegeing on the part of the chairman of the committee on finance will alter the fact that outside of preparedness there has been at least $200,000,000 of wasteful appropriations and expenditures by the present congress. That condition of the treasury will absolutely necessitate the withholding of contracts for battleships and delay the whole scheme of preparedness.

"The figures of the secretary of the treasury may be juggled as they may, but when the secretary is up against the brute fact of not having money to pay for these projects he will then find that figures will not make a surplus in the treasury."

SACRIFICED COUNTRY'S HONOR AND INTEREST

Mr. Wilson's defenders say he "has kept us out of war." As a matter of fact, his policy in Mexico has combined all the evils of a feeble peace with all the evils of a feeble war. He has secured none of the benefits of war, but he has not avoided war. He has sacrificed the honor and the interests of the country, but he has not received the thirty pieces of silver. —From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Editorial Comment.

Bryan butts, Wilson tuts.

Watchful waiting maketh woeful waiting.

Candidate Hughes doesn't talk like a tut-tutter.

Hughes is hammering and the Democrats are yammering.

The Wilson Administration stands for taxes, and more taxes.

The Hughes trail will be cold by the time the Democrats strike it.

As a party leader, would it be fair to refer to J. H. H. Lewis as J. "Cork" Lewis?

Can the folks on the Democratic band wagon continue to play by the president's notes?

Bryan says Mr. Hughes' talks aren't judicial. No. The people can understand 'em perfectly.

Hughes says the country can't be moved by letting it drift. That's where he and W. Wilson differ.

Washington reports that a new apology has been sent to First Chief Carranza. Looks like a habit.

Mr. Bryan is mistaken when he says Hughes is "vitiolic." The candidate is merely applying the acid test.

Political opponents are beginning to find that why Mr. Hughes kept silence so long wasn't because he had lost his tongue.

Another encouraging feature about our new navy is that when it is completed Mr. Daniels will not be secretary of it.

Having discovered that the Democrats don't like what he is saying, Mr. Hughes doubtless is convinced that he is on the right track.

A bond issue by the Wilson administration is merely Uncle Sam's note, and the best thing Woodrow Wilson does is to write notes.

Mr. McCormick follows the same method in claiming credit for legislation as he does in his predictions. He includes several acts of the Taft administration.

The Democratic press is convinced that it is the duty of Mr. Hughes to say something that will hurt his chance of being elected.

President Wilson in his acceptance speech may reply to Mr. Hughes' charges, but he will not answer them. That is an entirely different matter.

A messenger of President Wilson found out that Colorado women were for the administration. No messenger, of course, can be blamed for making good.

It is reported from Washington that the administration will ignore most of Mr. Hughes' charges. That is very much the easiest way for it to answer them.

President Wilson will not make any speaking dates, we are told, but only separate engagements for addresses, considering a "speaking tour" indulged in. "Too proud to fight."

Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy announces that he will retire after the campaign. It is believed that many other more or less distinguished Democrats will follow his example.

Governor Hughes announces in one of his speeches that he is a constructionist. But we are willing to admit that so far as Democratic policies are concerned he is a destructionist.

President Wilson will be notified of the Democratic nomination at Shadow Lawn. This seems a most appropriate place for letting him know that he will shortly have to give up his place in the sun.

Grover Cleveland was the last Democratic president. He was also the last president to issue bonds to secure money to defray the running expenses of the government. But Wilson will do him in this.

"Eminent judges," says Colonel Henry Watterson, "have ever proved disappointing candidates." He is right. Alton B. Parker was a big disappointment to the Democrats. And so is Charles Evans Hughes.—Toloto Blade.

What Josephine Daniels, the well known musical millerist, can't understand is why men should waste time flitting about in sea when they might just as well learn how to become sailors in three lessons in any good, reliable correspondence school.

President Wilson appears to have been keenly alive to the expediency of accepting several invitations to make speeches in the West. Nobody knows any better than he that it will take considerable shoveling to fill up the holes that have been dug in that locality by Justice Hughes.

It was John P. St. John of Kansas, one time prohibitionist candidate for president of the United States, who said that Americans vote as they cheer. If so, there is mighty little consolation for the Democratic party in this campaign, for the Democratic administration in three years has given us nothing to cheer over. On the contrary, as Mr. Hughes has said, these last three years have been years of humiliation and embarrassment.

Constipation the Father of Many Ills

Of the numerous ills that afflict humanity a large share start with constipation. Keep your bowels regular and they may be avoided. When a laxative is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. Obtainable everywhere.

The only vote which counts is the vote which registers the conviction of the voter.

A Texas Wonder

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures rheumatism, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of bladder troubles, removing gravel, the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggists will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for testimonials from Kentucky and other States. Dr. F. W. Hall, 2926 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo. Sold by all druggists.

The creed of the brewers proves conclusively that the liquor traffic is a bulldozing outlaw.

Political Jottings

The Houston Post reasons that it was easier for its own beloved Democracy to endorse the president's Mexican policy than to define it.

While he was about it Senator James Hamilton Lewis also might have explained that the House that was "too proud to fight" died a rather disastrous death.

"In all fairness," asks the Boston Transcript, "shouldn't the expense of financing Carranza be borne by the Democratic campaign committee?"

Democrats really haven't any objection to big appropriations for army and navy and internal improvements. They expect the Republicans to rustle the revenue to foot the bills for the next four years.

Hughes says he would like six months to investigate the administration, but the administration figures he's doing very well as it is.

Yes, and the same policies that have filled Judge Hughes and others with "a deep sense of shame" have sent many other Americans to their graves.

The president has changed his mind about sending more troops to the border, thus running true to form.

When Tom Taggart talks economy to them it is time the Democrats stopped their extravagance.

The Hughes smile is beginning to attract favorable attention.

President Entertains Five Progressives.—Headline. Others he simply amuses.

Democratic papers chide Hughes because he says he is "100 per cent a candidate." The Wilson papers naturally prefer a fifty-fifty candidate.

The president says he has no interest in any political party "except as an instrument of achievement." If that's it then how did he happen to select such a poor instrument as the Democratic party?

Carranza isn't a candidate for president of the United States, but he did more for American preparedness in three weeks than Woodrow Wilson did in three years.

Another thing you never hear of since the Democrats reduced the cost of living is the "laker's dozen."

Mr. Hughes is criticised for his frequent use of the word "now." Evidently his immediateness is worrying the watchful waiters, who put things off until tomorrow.

Families living in the rural districts where mail service has been curtailed will be interested in knowing that Postmaster General Burleson has sent Secretary McAdoo a check for $3,200,000, representing surplus postal revenues.

Mr. Gardner should not quote what Mr. Wilson said while president of Princeton. His utterances are outlawed by himself in seven days.

That man Hughes is causing the Democratic newspapers an endless amount of worry. Apparently they will never be satisfied until he turns the management of his campaign over to them.

Mr. Hughes' speeches are giving poor satisfaction to the Democratic press, which proves they are very good speeches indeed.

Secretary Baker is developing an agility in changing his mind that amazes him to his discoverer.

Mr. Wilson's administration must confess itself incompetent in one respect or the other. It either has appropriated for an unequipped navy or it has neglected a needed navy. It can select its fault to suit itself. In one respect or the other it must be wrong.

"I believe in efficiency in politics just as much as in anything else," says Mr. Hughes. Efficiency is an excellent watchword, and its use in the campaign is merely a forerunner of its use in the White House when he gets there.

First they said that Hughes was an iceberg; now they are saying that he is a mud slinger. He cannot possibly be both and, as a matter of fact, is neither. The Democrats must feel in a mighty bad way when they cry out "mud and treason."

WILSON ADMITS HE PRECIPITATED WAR

When Mr. Wilson forgets himself he admits that we have been at war. For example, on May 11, 1914, in an address over the dead marines at the navy yard in Brooklyn he said that "the marines had been engaged in a war of service." A war of service to whom or to what? Certainly not to the United States, nor to Mexico, nor to humanity at large. Was it to Mr. Wilson? From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

M'KINLEY'S WAR COST LESS BLOODSHED THAN WILSON'S PEACE

By Theodore Roosevelt.

Under President McKinley we had a war with Spain. Under President Wilson we are assured that we have had "peace" with Mexico. These are the words. Now for the deeds. During the war with Spain fewer Americans were killed by the Spaniards than have been killed by Mexicans during the present "peace" with Mexico. Let me repeat this. A greater number of Americans have been killed by Mexicans during these years, when we are officially informed that we have been at peace with them, than were killed by the Spaniards during our entire war with Spain. Moreover, when the war with Spain was through, it was through. But peace still continues to rage as furiously as ever in Mexico. Nor is this all. The instant effect of the outcome of the war with Spain was to put a stop to the dreadful butchery and starvation in Cuba and the Philippines, and the entry of both Cuba and the Philippines on a career of eighty-two years of peace and prosperity such as they had never known before in all their checkered history. But during these three years of Mr. Wilson's "peace" the Mexicans themselves have been butchered by their own bandits steadily and without intermission; and Mexican women and children have died by thousands—probably by scores of thousands—of starvation and of the diseases incident to starvation. In other words, Mr. McKinley's war cost less than peace; and it reflected high honor on the American people; whereas Mr. Wilson's peace has been one of shame and dishonor for the American people, and one of ruin and bloodshed for the Mexicans.

The New York World, which once was outspoken in its admiration for Mr. Hughes, now declares that the people do not know where Hughes stands, or what he stands for. This Wilson organ had no such criticism to make when Mr. Hughes was governor. The World said on May 17, 1910: "He dictated no nominations, controlled no convention, trafficked in no patronage, made no bargains with office-holders. He has rewarded nobody for supporting him and punished nobody for opposing him. What influence he has wielded over public opinion has come through his appeals to the voters themselves." That is the estimate of Mr. Hughes given by the World six years ago. It is a pretty fair letter of recommendation. Could the World say as much for President Wilson? Hardly, for the president has done all of the things from which the World absolved Hughes.—Kansas City Journal.

GUARDSMEN PAY THE PRICE OF WILSON'S ABASEMENT.

Having condoned the repeated murders of Americans by the Carranzistas and having abased himself before Carranza and having aided in placing Carranza in power, what is Mr. Wilson's reward, and who pays it? The reward is that Mr. Wilson has to place 150,000 troops on the border to partially prevent the raids and murders that his friend, Mr. Carranza, will not or cannot prevent, and the payment is made by the soldiers who are slain and by the families of the guardsmen who go in vain because their husbands and fathers have been called to the border to make good Mr. Wilson's refusal to let the regular army administer such punishment to the bandits as to inspire in them a healthy fear.—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

The President himself has tried to appropriate for his own advantage the sentiment of "America first." The Democrats have tried to make his support an act of piety by adopting "Thank God for Wilson" as a slogan. Mr. Hughes, with rare courage, frankness and penetration, is exposing the flimsy foundation for the claims of Wilsonian infallibility. He is laying bare a record of extravagance, partiality, sectionalism, incompetence, wrongheadedness, vacillation and insincerity which destroys the attempt to make a job out of the President. The Democrats must come out of their ecstatic trance and defend their stewardship. The President is to be put on the stump. We are to hear something beside Delphic prose poems.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Mr. Wilson now virtually admits that all his own ideas were wrong four years ago. He has changed his mind on every public question. On some of them he has changed twice or even three times. Even if his friends could satisfy the public at this time he is exactly right, what assurance could be given that he would be right a year hence?

School opened Monday with an enrollment of about 300. A large number of parents were present which was quite encouraging. The teachers for this term are as follows: Pres. Bell, principal; Mesdames Ida McNary-Porter and E. B. Osburn; Misses Mattie McCanley, E. O. Guthrie, Hazel White, Pauline Garrett and Neva Waters. It is hoped that the parents will continue to visit the school.

The C. M. E. and A. M. E. churches began their camp meeting at the A. M. E. church Thursday night. There will be good preaching and singing each night. Everybody is invited.

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet at the school house Tuesday night. All parents and friends are cordially invited to be present. Refreshments will be served.

Please leave your news items at Collins' restaurant. Let me know of your visitors, parties and visiting.

What Is Uric Acid?

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL AND SUDDEN DEATH.

Ever since the discovery of uric acid in the blood by Scheele, in 1775, and the fact that it had upon the body, scientists and physicians have striven to rid the tissues and the blood of this poison. Because of its overabundance in the system it causes backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica. It was Dr. Pierce who discovered a new agent, called "Anurio," which will throw out and completely eradicate this uric acid from the system. "Anurio" has proved to be 37 times more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body. Send to Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., for a pamphlet on "Anurio," or send 10 cents for a trial package of "Anurio Tablets."

If you feel that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, go to your best drug store and ask for Dr. Pierce's Anurio Tablets. They are put up in 50-cent packages. Doctor Pierce's reputation is back of this medicine and you know that his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the blood and his "Favorite Prescription" for the liver of women have had a splendid reputation for the past fifty years.

Doctor Pierce's Pellets are unequalled as a Liver Pill. One tiny Sugar-coated Pellet a Day. Cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Biliary Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.
